

Nguyen Ngoc Hai Uyen - Kyoto Institute of Technology – Japan

Nguyen Ngoc Hai Uyen is students in course 22 of major Biotechnology, Biotechnology Research and Development Institute, Can Tho University. In the education program between KIT - Vietnam for graduate students which is passed report of cooperation between KIT and Can Tho University , Uyen took park in exchange student program with Biotechnology major between the CTU and KIT from October to December 2015 .

In study trips, Uyen researched in the laboratory of Molecular Biology Chemistry , Department of Biomolecular Engineering, KIT with direction of Professor Kaeko Kamei .

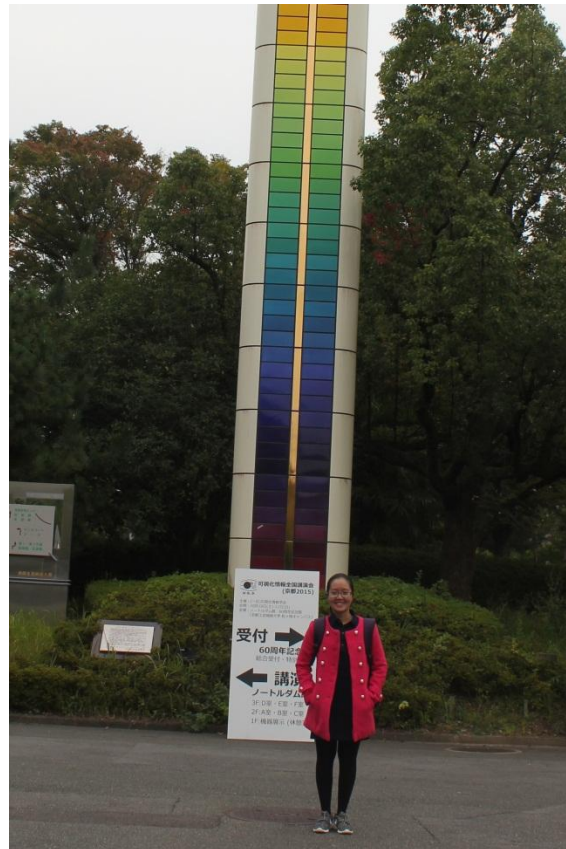

Fig. Symbol of KIT

Fig. A corner of KIT

At the laboratory, My experiment was isolation bacteriophages which infect Ralstonia solanacearum. Also, Uyen took part in reports, academic activities and exchange of research results which were organized by Professor weekly.

Fig. Vietnamese - Japanese students' scientific Exchange Meeting

On this occasion, Uyen also attended two conferences which were The 13th Japan - Vietnam Joint Seminar and The 8th Vietnamese - Japanese students' scientific Exchange Meeting with many scientists Vietnam, Japan and Vietnamese students who are studying at KIT and the University of Kyoto from 29 to 31/10/2015.

Fig. Picnic with all members in labotary

Besides, Uyen also joined the party, sports meeting and visited famous tourist sites (Koyasan, Hieizan), historic sites (Kyoto Imperial Palace, Nijo City) and special festivals (Jidai, Kurama) with Vietnam and Japanese students. This activity helps Uyen has more understanding of Japanese culture, increasing solidarity with the Japanese students and improving the ability to communicate in English and Japanese.

Fig. Happy Vietnamese Teacher's Day